

Let My Soul Say It Is Well

A E A
When all my peace has long been gone

F#m E D
When steady faith is memory past

E A
Then to your mercy I will cling

Bm E A
And know your peace will come at last

When tempter's snare is at my feet
When sin is crouching at my door
When my weak heart is giving way
Then I will trust your strength is more

CHORUS 1

D E A
When wisdom lacks and faith is weak

D E F#m
When sin destroys the good I seek

D E A
Then let my lips not fail to tell

D E F#m
And let my soul say, "It is well."

Bm E A
And let my soul say, "It is well."

When my poor heart is broken still
When sleep escapes me in the night
Then I will trust your steady Word
And make your promise my delight

A
And when my hope is lost at sea

F#m
When wind and waters overwhelm

D
Then to the Anchor I will hold

Bm E A
And preach this thought: that all is well

Words & Music by Michael Krahn
© Mighty Zimbo Records
Released Oct. 13, 2022

Contact: michael.krahn@gmail.com
Website: www.michaelkrahn.com